About Me

I am a highly adaptable individual, capable of diving into new environments and challenges with ease. My passion for learning is an essential part of who I am, and I am constantly seeking new opportunities to broaden my horizons and acquire knowledge. I believe that the combination of my adaptability and eagerness to learn enables me to confidently tackle any situation that arises. I am a Front-End Web Developer (HTML 5 | CSS 3 | Javascript | TypeScript | NodeJs | React and React-Native).

Objective

To enter the job market through an internship/professional opportunity in technology-related fields, preferably in web development.
